GM Holden Senior Leadership Announcement

28 October, 2014

Holden is announcing an important senior leadership change today.

Gerry Dorizas has resigned from the position of Chairman and Managing Director of GM Holden to pursue other opportunities, effective immediately.

Gerry took the reins of Holden at a time of fundamental change for the business and our people. He implemented a number of important measures to help support the transition to a National Sales Company

I thank Gerry for his contribution to Holden and I wish him well in his future endeavours.

I know that this period of change has been challenging for many employees. I thank you for your hard work and ongoing commitment to Holden.

GM remains 100 percent committed to the Holden brand. Across GM and within Holden, we all want the business to win in Australia and New Zealand. I firmly believe that a number of the key puzzle pieces are now in place to deliver a successful future for Holden.

It is important that we all maintain our focus on the goals that will deliver success for Holden and our customers in Australia and New Zealand.

Holden Chief Financial Officer Jeff Rolfs will serve as interim Managing Director until the recruitment process is concluded.

Please join me in wishing Gerry well and offering Jeff your support.
